Re: Sole Source

To Whom It May Concern,

Philips Healthcare, a division of Philips North America LLC and its Affiliates, is the original manufacturer of the Monitoring System that currently resides at the University of Mississippi Medical Center Jackson, MS. Because we are the original manufacturer of the Monitoring System, IntelliBridge Enterprise (IBE), Philips can upgrade and provide the necessary updates and service to the software accordingly to the aforementioned products. Philips is the only vendor that offers certified parts that meet our original equipment manufacturers specifications. We also hold the proprietary license and related authorizations for the Philips Monitoring products, supplies and support.

Thank you for choosing Philips for your medical product needs. If you should have questions or concerns, please feel free to email me at Candice.Downs@philips.com.

Sincerely,
